

POWELL OF ROLLESTON, STAFFS

ARMS: Or a lion rampant sable over all a fesse gules (*1680) [PLOT]

CREST:

Sir Simon Degge says, in his MS. additions to Erdeswick, "at Rolleston park, a mile south of Tutbury, is the seat of Powell, that was great nephew to Sir William Powell, knt. and courtier in the time of King James [1603-25]; of whose son, as I take it, he purchased this park, and made the lodge his seat." [ERDESWICK (1844) 537]

In 1666 the hearth tax record reads "John Bond, for the hall ... Seaventeene"

..... Powell
chn: William Powell below
 .XXX. Powell below

Sir William Powell Knight
[? (an Equerry of the King's Stable) 1610]
(Courtier, King James)
(as J.P., Staffs, noncommunicant and wife not at church) [House of Lords Journal, 20 May 1624]
chn: Powell

.XXX. Powell

c1532 FAS []; *1583 []; *1614/64 []; *1664/1700 []; IGI []

NOT INDEXED

—

—